

Hosanna!

When horse and chariot sink into the sea

ERLEIGH
10 10 10 10 (10)

Words: Kate Bluett
Music: David Lee

A E/A D/A A

1. When horse and cha - riot sink in - to the sea
2. While i - dols crack be - neath the peo - ple's gaze
3. When ho - li - ness is bought and sold for alms,

C#m C#m7 B7 Esus4 E A/C# E/B

while shat - tered ar - mies scat - ter on the run, he rides a and watch their na - tions crum - ble, blind and dumb, he en - ters sal - va - tion is a reck - on - ing of sums, he rides on

A D/F# Bm7 E7

beast of bur - den in the street. Ho - san - na to the king, to Da - vid's on the noise of child - ren's praise: Ho - san - na! Bless - èd is the king who bor - rowed robes and fo - raged palms: Ho - san - na! In the name of God he

F#sus4 F#7 Bm7 E7 A son! Ho - san - na to the king, to Da - vid's son!

comes! Ho - san - na! Bless - èd is the king who comes!
comes! Ho - san - na! In the name of God he comes!

4 And we shall crown him as a victor king
and see him lifted up in all his might
as from his fullness we take everything.
Hosanna! Oh, hosanna in the height!
Hosanna! Oh, hosanna in the height!

5 He comes to found a kingdom of the poor,
to show the face of God to all the world,
to cancel every debt. Lift up, you doors!
Hosanna! Oh, hosanna to the Lord!
Hosanna! Oh, hosanna to the Lord!