

O radiant light

Phos hilaron

HORKSTOW GRANGE
(HARKSTOW GRANGE)
9 8 9 8

Words paraphrase: David Lee Music: Traditional
arr. David Lee

1. O ra - dant light of — God's pure glo - ry, O mir - ror of the —
2. As here the sun - light — fades to eve - ning our voi - ces join the —
3. To God the Fa - ther, — our cre - a - tor, to God the Son whom —

Fa - ther's face, O heav'n - ly, — blest, ce - les - tial, ho - ly, O an - gels' praise, your name, Lord — Je - sus Christ, con - fess - ing, our we a - dore, to God the — Spi - rit, our sus - tai - ner, be bear - er of the Fa - ther's grace:

guid - ing light in all our ways.
praise and glo - ry e - ver - more. A - men.

The folk tune was collected by Percy Grainger around 1905 from Horkstow, in north Lincolnshire.

*The harmony here, including consecutive fifths,
borrows a little from his arrangement for brass band in "Lincolnshire Posy".
This also spells the name as "Harkstow".*