

Lift up your heads, O you gates

Psalm 24

Words and music: David Lee

RESPONSE

Lift up your heads, O you gates, and be lift-ed up, you ev-er-last-ing doors, that the King of glo-ry— may come in. may come in.

B $\flat$  E $\flat$  except final Cm F Final
Cm Cm/F B $\flat$  Fine

VERSES 1, 2

1. To God be-longs all the earth, all that is in it is
2. Who to his moun-tain may go? who in his ho-ly place

his. His is the com-pass of all of the world, stand? Those with a pure heart, with hands un-de-filed,

Gm7 Dm7 Cm7 F

Gm C F#sus4 F D/F# Gm

his those who dwell there in. For he has found it those who are true to their word. Those who so seek him, for

C7 F G G7 C C7 D.C. al Fine

o - ver the o - cean depths, plant - ed it o - ver the wa - ters.
 sak - ing all o - ther gods, they shall in - her - it his bless - ing.

VERSE 3
 Bb

3. Who is this King in his glo - ry? Who is this King in his splen - dour?

Gm7 Dm7 Cm7 F G G7 C C7 D.C. al Fine

Strong and all - pow - er - ful, migh - ty to save: sove - reign Lord of the hea - vens.