

How precious is your unfailing love, O God

Psalms 36: 5-10

Words and music: David Lee

RESPONSE

Am7/D G D/F# Em Em/D Am G/B

How pre - cious — is your un - fail - ing love, O — God: the child - ren of earth shall find

Am/C Am7 Am7/D G2 G Fine

re - fuge be - neath the sha - dow of your wings.

VERSES

G7 AbMaj7 Eb/G AbMaj7 Eb/G Fm7 Fm7/Bb

1. Your love, O Lord, ex - tends through - out the hea - vens, — your faith - ful - ness to the
2. With - in your house you feast us in a - bun - dance, — the hun - gry rest, sa - tis -

E \flat
A \flat Maj7
E \flat /G
A \flat Maj7
E \flat /G

skies; your right - eous - ness stands like the might - y moun - tains, — your fied; you quench our thirst with wa - ter from your foun - tain, — from

Fm7
Fm7/B \flat
E \flat
G7/F
Cm/E \flat
G7/D
Cm

just - ice plumbs deep - est seas. From you cre - a - tion draws its life and in streams of life and de - light. Main - tain your love to those who know you, be

G/B Am7
G Dsus4
D.C. al Fine
D

you all things liv - ing re - turn to their rest.
 con - stant to those who stay true to your word.