

O for a heart to praise my God

Nevilles Cross
8 6 8 6 D (DCM)

Words: Charles Wesley
Music: David Lee

1. O — for a heart to praise — my God, a — heart from sin — set free,
2. A — hum - ble, low - ly, con - trite heart, be - liev - ing, true — and clean;
3. My — heart, thou know'st, can ne - ver rest till — thou cre - ate — my peace;

a — heart that al - ways feels — thy blood so — free - ly shed — for me;
which — nei - ther life nor death — can part from — him that dwells — with - in;
till, — of my E - den re - pos - sessed, from — ev - ery sin — I cease.

a — heart re - signed, sub - mis - sive, meek, my great Re - dee - mer's throne, a — heart in — ev - ery thought — re - newed, and full of love di - vine;
Thy — nat - ure, — gra - cious Lord, — im - part! Come quick - ly from a - bove, where — on - ly — Christ is heard — to speak, where — Je - sus reigns — a - lone.

per - fect and — right and pure — and good, a — co - py, Lord, — of thine!
write — thy new — name up - on — my heart, thy — new, best name — of love.
